About Boyd & Jenerette, P.A.

Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. is a civil litigation law firm with offices in Florida and Georgia. The Firm's practice areas include civil matters involving insurance defense, construction defect claims, workers' compensation, Longshore and Defense Base Act claims, Admiralty and Jones Act claims, transportation and trucking, commercial law, business litigation, professional liability, coverage and bad faith and mass torts. The Firm is also experienced in handling civil appeals in state and federal courts, and offers alternative dispute resolution techniques such as arbitration or mediation.

The Firm maintains a commitment to excellence in advocacy when pursuing client's goals through pre-suit resolution, mediation, arbitration or trial. Our team of experienced attorneys works to help insurance carriers, their insureds, self-insured entities and others manage risk and reduce exposure through training, counsel and an aggressive, cost effective defense litigation strategy.

Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. strives to build long-term client relationships through outstanding service, which is reflected in part through attorney credentials and peer recognition. Six of the Firm's attorneys are Board Certified by The Florida Bar, including one in the area of Civil Trial, one in Appellate Law, two in Construction Law, and three in Workers' Compensation.

The Firm is AV® Preeminent Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, and 11 of the Firm's attorneys are also AV® Peer Review Rated at an individual level.

Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. is recognized in the 2018 "Best Law Firms" list by U.S. News & World Report and Best Lawyers® in the following two areas: Tier 2, Jacksonville, Personal Injury Litigation – Defendants, and Insurance Law. The Firm is honored to have been recognized in Best Lawyers "Best Law Firms" rankings for eight consecutive years (2011 – 2018).

Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. was founded by Charles T. Boyd, Jr. and Noah H. Jenerette, Jr. in 1952. It maintains offices in Jacksonville, Coconut Creek and Orlando, Florida, and Savannah, Georgia. Details online at <http://www.boydjen.com>.

About the Workers' Compensation & Employment Practice

The defense of workers' compensation claims has been a focal point of Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. for more than 60 years.

The firm serves clients by providing aggressive yet practical representation throughout the states of Florida, Georgia and North Carolina.

The workers' compensation attorneys at Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. strive to set the standard for excellence and to stay on the forefront of workers' compensation laws, as outlined below.

- Timely returning client phone calls or emails on the same day.
- Working on nearly paperless files, allowing us to instantly have access to all data and be able to quickly respond no matter where our attorneys are located.
- Maintaining appropriate file counts to make sure each and every client gets the attention they deserve.
- Quickly assessing the client's risk and provide timely defense plans and reporting to meet client needs.
- Monitoring the file's days open with the goal to quickly resolve or bring matters to conclusion in a cost-effective manner.

Workers' compensation attorney highlights:

- Two of the practice area attorneys – Mark K. Eckels, Blake J. Hood – are Board Certified in Workers' Compensation Law by The Florida Bar.
- Mark Eckels served on The Florida Bar's Workers' Compensation Board Certification Committee.
- Mark Eckels served on The Florida Bar's Workers' Compensation Rules Advisory Committee.
- Blake Hood is admitted to practice in North Carolina and routinely handles workers' compensation claims in that state, in addition to his work in Florida.
- Mark Eckels and Mary Morgan are admitted to practice in Georgia and routinely handle workers' compensation claims in that state.
- Five of the practice group's attorneys are qualified as continuing education instructors by the State of Florida, Division of Financial Services, Bureau of Licensing.
- Three of the practice group attorneys are AV® Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell.
- In 2007, the E. Robert Williams Inn of Court was formed. Named in honor of the Firm's longtime partner, the E. Robert Williams Inn of Court was the first ever American Inn of Court devoted exclusively to the field of workers' compensation. The Inn is comprised of lawyers, judges, mediators, and law students who are significantly involved in the practice of workers' compensation. Benford Samuels served as the Inn's first vice-president, and then president, and in 2013, he received the Inn's John J. Schickel Professionalism Award.

Areas of service within the workers' compensation practice include:

- Appeals
- Claim prevention and litigation

	Glen A. McClary Shareholder Practice Group Co-Leader 904.353.6242 gmcclary@boydjen.com

Glen McClary maintains a statewide practice in the areas of workers' compensation, employment, business law and general litigation. He strives to provide the highest level of service with innovative legal and business solutions. He represents a wide range of clients from different industries with an emphasis on understanding his clients' needs and business practices. He was honored by the American Institute of Legal Counsel as "Top 10 Best in Client Satisfaction" for 2016 in the Workers' Compensation Division.

He is known as a counselor who partners with clients to achieve their goals by using his experience as a litigator and business leader. His focus is on finding and achieving the correct solution for the client's goals whether it be through the legal system or through other avenues. He is skilled and studied in the tactics of mediation resolution but also has a deep bench of trial experience.

Mr. McClary handles numerous cases involving significantly complex issues in multiple jurisdictions throughout the State. He frequently practices out of the Jacksonville and South Florida offices.

In the area of workers' compensation, Mr. McClary defends insurance carriers and employers in multiple industries including the trucking, transportation, construction and hospitality industries across the state of Florida in a range of matters.

He counsels employers in risk avoidance and mitigation by maintaining compliance with the Florida Division of Workers' Compensation rules and responding to legal trends. He stays abreast of changes in the law, such as the Florida Supreme Court's recent ruling finding the state's mandatory attorneys' fee schedule for workers' compensation cases unconstitutional and advises clients on adjusting trial strategies accordingly.

Mr. McClary served as sole Managing Shareholder of the Firm from 2000 to 2012, where he used his business acumen to develop and lead Boyd & Jenerette, P.A. producing a significant period of growth to one of the state's largest firms. He continues to be instrumental in leading the Firm as a prominent member of the Firm's management team.

He is a certified instructor and teaches regular courses for clients. He lectures throughout the State to various groups including judges, clients, employers, businesses and medical practitioners and the resort and hospitality sector.

		Mark K. Eckels Shareholder Chair, Maritime & Admiralty Law Past Chair, Workers' Compensation 904.353.6244 meckels@boydjen.com
---	---	--

Mr. Eckels devotes his practice to the defense of employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation and Longshore claims. He practices throughout Florida and Georgia in the workers' compensation context, while his longshore and Defense Base Act practice extends nationwide.

He handles all facets of workers' compensation and longshore claims from the initial reporting of an accident and its investigation, through the discovery process to trial, and any appellate proceedings thereafter. He is routinely called upon by insurance companies to provide coverage opinions in complex coverage disputes or to evaluate jurisdictional issues that often arise between competing state and federal jurisdictions.

Mr. Eckels is Board Certified in Workers' Compensation by The Florida Bar, a designation he achieved in 2000. He served on The Florida Bar's Workers' Compensation Board Certification Committee (2007-2013), including a term as chair. He also served on The Florida Bar's Workers' Compensation Rules Advisory Committee (2002-2012), and served as chair (2011-2012).

Employers, manufacturers, insurance carriers, shippers, logistic companies, maritime employers, stevedoring companies and defense contractors are clients of Mr. Eckels. He represents companies engaged in all facets of the shipping industry, from ship to shore and overland transportation. In this regard, he serves as designated statewide or national counsel for several logistic companies, insurance carriers, longshore employers and Defense Base Act contractors.

His ability to practice law in Georgia, along with his longshore claims experience, allows him to sort out issues that arise from the concurrent jurisdiction that exists in Georgia. His maritime practice also includes the defense of Jones Act claims, general maritime negligence claims, and 905(b) claims.

Mr. Eckels lectures extensively on a wide range of workers' compensation and longshore/Defense Base Act topics. He has presented at nationally recognized seminars including the Loyola Longshore Conference in New Orleans, the Signal Maritime Conference, and the Florida Workers' Compensation Educational Conference in Orlando. In addition, he provides in-house training for clients on topics including claims handling, jurisdictional disputes, ethics, and the interplay between the ADA, FMLA, and state workers' compensation laws.

In his spare time, he is an avid runner, having completed over 75 marathons, including marathons in all 50 states, as well as marathons in Budapest, Paris, Dublin, Zurich, Athens,

Antarctica and Beirut. He has completed 3 Ironman competitions (Florida, Germany and Brazil), and several half-Ironman events. He is an Eagle Scout and currently serves as an Assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 906 chartered by St. John's Cathedral. He served on the Board of the St. Mark's Foundation for St. Mark's Lutheran Church from 2009-2011 and currently serves on the Board of Directors for St. Mark's Ark, the church's day care. He has been a member of the Baptist Hospital Institutional Review Committee since 2003.
